Russia eviction appeal rejected

Australia's highest court on Wednesday rejected Russia's challenge to a law that evicted the state on security grounds from a site where Moscow wanted to build its new embassy. Seven High Court judges unanimously ruled that while the Australian government was entitled to cancel the lease in the national capital, Canberra, it also owed Russia compensation. Australia must pay half of Russia's legal costs for bringing the case to court. Attorney-General Michelle Rowland said she welcomed the court's finding that the government had acted lawfully in terminating the lease.

Bus fall into ravine, 37 killed

A passenger bus fell into a deep ravine early Wednesday after crashing with another vehicle in southern Peru, killing at least 37 people and injuring 13 more, authorities said. The health manager of the Arequipa region, Walther Oporto, said to local radio RPP that the bus hit a pickup truck and it went off a road on a curve, falling more than 200 metres (more than 650 feet) to the banks of the Ocoña river.

G7 diplomats meet amid trade tension

ASSOCIATED PRESS
Niagara-On-The-Lake

Top diplomats from the Group of Seven industrialised democracies are converging on southern Ontario as tensions rise between the US and traditional allies like Canada over defence spending, trade and uncertainty over President Donald Trump's ceasefire plan in Gaza and efforts to end the Russia-Ukraine war.

Canadian Foreign Minister Anita Anand said in an interview with The Associated Press that "the relationship has to continue across a range of issues" despite trade pressures as she prepared to host US Secretary of State Marco Rubio and their counterparts from Britain, France, Germany, Italy and Japan on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"We're tackling a range of critical issues with one main focus: putting the safety and security of Americans FIRST," Rubio said in a social media post. Anand also invited the foreign ministers of Australia, Brazil, India, Saudi Arabia, Mexico, South Korea, South Africa and Ukraine.

Anand said critical priorities for discussion Tuesday night include talks on advancing long-term peace and stability in the Middle East. "The peace plan must be upheld," Anand said.

The diplomats will meet with Ukraine's foreign minister early Wednesday. Britain says it will send 13 million pounds ($17 million) to help patch up Ukraine's energy infrastructure as winter approaches and Russian attacks intensify. The money will go toward repairs to power, heating and water supplies and humanitarian support for Ukrainians.

Foreign Ministers European Union's Kaja Kallas, Japan's Toshimitsu Motegi, Britain's Yvette Cooper, France's Jean-Noel Barrot, Canada's Anita Anand, US Secretary of State Marco Rubio, Germany's Johann Wadepuhl and Italy's Antonio Tajani in Niagara-on-the-Lake Canada

UK Foreign Secretary Yvette Cooper, who made the announcement before the meeting, said Russian President Vladimir Putin "is trying to plunge Ukraine into darkness and the cold as winter approaches," but the British support will help keep the lights and heating on.

Canada's G7 hosting duties this year have been marked by strained relations with its North American neighbour, predominantly over Trump's imposition of tariffs on Canadian imports. But the entire bloc of allies is confronting major turbulence over the Republican president's demands on trade and various proposals to halt worldwide conflicts.

One main point of contention has been defence spending. All G7 members except for Japan are members of NATO, and Trump has demanded that the alliance partners spend 5 per cent of their annual gross domestic product on defence. While a number of countries have agreed, others have not. Among the G7 NATO members, Canada and Italy are furthest from that goal. Anand said Canada will reach 5 per cent of GDP by 2035. There have also been G7 disagreements over the Israel-Hamas war in Gaza, with Britain, Canada and France announcing they would recognise a Palestinian state even without a resolution to the conflict. With the Russia-Ukraine war, most G7 members have taken a tougher line on Russia than Trump. The two-day meeting in Niagara-on-the-Lake on Lake Ontario near the US border comes after Trump ended trade talks with Canada because the Ontario provincial government ran an anti-tariff advertisement in the US that upset him.

That followed a spring of acrimony, since abated, over Trump's insistence that Canada should become the 51st US State. Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney apologised for the ad and said last week that he's ready to resume trade talks when the Americans are ready.

Anand said she will have a meeting with Rubio, but noted that a different minister leads the US trade file. "Every complex relationship has numerous touch points," Anand said in the interview. "On the trade file, there is continued work to be done — just as there is work to be done on the numerous touch points outside the trade file, and that's where Secretary Rubio and I come in because the relationship has to continue across a range of issues."

China and Spain sign cooperation agreements

Beijing

Spanish King Felipe VI and Chinese President Xi Jinping signed agreements on language exchanges and other areas Wednesday as both sides vowed to strengthen their cooperation.

The monarch's visit comes as Spain, the eurozone's fourth-largest economy, continues its courtship of China and Chinese investment while the relationship with the United States is strained under President Donald Trump. In April, Spanish Prime Minister Pedro Sánchez, head of the country's government, made his third visit to China in as many years. Spain is one of the more friendly countries to China relative to others in the European Union in recent years. Felipe and Queen Letizia were met by Xi and his wife Peng Liyuan in front of Beijing's Great Hall of the People, and were greeted with a performance by the military band and a 21-gun salute. This is the first state visit for the Spanish king to China, and he was also accompanied by Spanish Foreign Minister José Manuel Albares. "China stands ready to work hand in hand with Spain to build a comprehensive strategic partnership that is more strategically steady, more dynamic in development, and more influential internationally," said Xi in his opening remarks, particularly while the international situation is "complex and volatile."

He said that China would also import more Spanish products, without specifying, according to a readout of the meeting from the official Xinhua news. Felipe and Xi signed agreements promoting cooperation in language exchanges, economic issues, and exporting aquatic products to China.

Felipe is also scheduled to meet with Chinese Premier Li Qiang and Zhao Leji, chairman of China's top legislative body. The monarch's first stop in China was the city of Chengdu, where alongside Spain's foreign minister and economy minister, he attended a Spain-China business forum with several Spanish business leaders.

Spain has taken a less adversarial stance toward China and has sought to reposition trade relations with the country, whose exports to Spain are far greater than those of the Iberian nation of 49.4 million people to China, which has a population of more than 1.4 billion.

Jaishankar meets Canada Foreign Minister Anita

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Ottawa

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar has met with his Canadian counterpart Anita Anand on the sidelines of the G7 foreign ministers' meeting in Niagara and said he looked forward to further rebuilding "our bilateral partnership".

In a social media post, Jaishankar said he congratulated Anand on hosting the G7 foreign ministers' meeting and appreciated the progress in implementation of the New Roadmap 2025. "Look forward to the further rebuilding of our bilateral partnership," he added. Anand, in a post on X, said the two leaders discussed "cooperation on trade, energy, security, and people-to-people ties". "The external affairs minister's participation in the G7 foreign ministers' meeting reflects India's continued commitment to working with international partners in addressing global challenges and bolstering the voice of the Global South in international fora," the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) said on Tuesday. The outreach partner nations that Canada has invited for the G7 meeting include Australia, Brazil, India, Saudi Arabia, Mexico, South Korea, South Africa and Ukraine.
